The South African government believes the chief motive for attacks is robbery. This position is shared by Afrikaner rights group Afriforum, which does not believe that there is a racial motive associated with most attacks. A Committee of Inquiry into Farm Attacks was appointed in 2001 by the National Commissioner of Police.

The African-American Civil Rights Movement was a group of social movements in the United States. Their goal was to gain equal rights for African-American people. The word "African-American" was not used at the time, so the movement was usually called The Civil Rights Movement. This article talks about the part of the movement that lasted from about 1954 to 1968.
