Overview. The academic dress found in most universities in the Commonwealth of Nations and the United States is derived from that of the universities of Oxford and Cambridge, which was a development of academic and clerical dress common throughout the medieval universities of Europe.. Formal or sober clothing is typically worn beneath the gown so, for example, men would often wear a dark suit ...

A ruana is a poncho-style outer garment typical of the Andes region of Colombia, particularly in the Boyacá department and Antioquia. According to ProColombia (former Proexport), the official Colombian agency in charge of international tourism, foreign investment, and non-traditional exports, the word ruana comes from the Chibcha ruana meaning "Land of Blankets", used to refer to the woolen ...
