Apartheid was a system of racial discrimination and segregation in South African government. It was formalised in 1948, forming a framework for political and economic dominance by the white population and severely restricting the political rights of the black majority.. Between 1960 and 1990, the African National Congress and other mainly black opposition political organisations were banned.

For much of the 20 th century, ideological discussions and debates have centered on liberal versus conservative, left versus right. No longer. The ideological divide of the 21 st century is emerging as globalism versus nationalism. Since the end of World War II, global integration and technological progress have fueled a new world order centered on free trade, open borders and interdependent ...
