Public Confessions

(James 5:16) I believe he was talking about a general confession to God before witnesses to purify us from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9) so that our prayer won't be hindered. I don't think he meant we should disclose each of our sins to those around us. Someone once said that public sin requires public confession.

Public Confession â€“ Grace thru faith

Basically, that means that a public sin or a public consequence of sin is going to need public confession and repentance. But most of our sins are against particular people, and sometimes we may be tempted to resort to public confession because it's easier to talk in general publicly than it is to talk specific personally.
