Suicide (French: Le suicide) is an 1897 book written by French sociologist Émile Durkheim. It was the first methodological study of a social fact in the context of society. It is ostensibly a case study of suicide, a publication unique for its time that provided an example of what the sociological monograph should look like.

The period from the earliest recorded raids in the 790s until the Norman conquest of England in 1066 is commonly known as the Viking Age of Scandinavian history. Vikings used the Norwegian Sea and Baltic Sea for sea routes to the south. The Normans were descended from Vikings who were given feudal overlordship of areas in northern France—the Duchy of Normandy—in the 10th century.

The above points were consistent with the findings from the review. While UIC appeared to encompass all of the forms universities and industry relationship, a variety of other additional forms were identified (see Table 1), which indicates that the possibilities for interaction for UIC are relatively wide (Shenhar, 1993). It was also found that different researchers presented different ...
