The Question Formulation Technique (QFT) is a simple step-by-step, rigorous process that facilitates the asking of many questions. The process includes the following steps: 1. A Question Focus (QFocus) 2. The Rules for Producing Questions 3. Producing Questions 4. Categorizing Questions 5. Prioritizing Questions 6.

Experiencing the Question Formulation Technique (QFT)

The remainder of this booklet is devoted to providing some methods which you can use to analyze your questioning strategies and to suggest some techniques for developing variety in the kinds of questions you ask. To develop variety in questioning, you need to know what kind of questions you commonly ask.

Ask the Right Questions - National Science Teachers

The Question Behind the Question or QBQ is a powerful tool that can be used to turn around peoples' thinking to ask personally accountable questions that will lead to improved business organizations and personal lives. By practicing QBQ thinking, things seem to run smoothly, and people have more fun and satisfaction.

QBQ! The Question Behind The Question

€ In the rare case you find a question that is irrelevant or not something you wish to answer, simply skip it and pick another one. € The first several categories of questions are the most nonthreatening and, therefore, the easiest to answer. These are the best ones to use with new acquaintances.
