The Unexpected Gift. The tears made room for joy. So much joy. My heart grew and stretched to make room for love. So much love. As the darkness subsided, rays of light began to break through and something unexpected emerged. Beneath the tears, heartache and darkness I saw my gift. Hope. So much hope. It filled me up.

Like the shepherds who gave the gift of their presence and the Magi who came with gifts of their own, we come with the gift of our time. And in the midst of our busy lives giving that gift is no small thing! Iâ€™m glad youâ€™re here. After all, Christmas is, for most people, partially about the giving and receiving of gifts.
